Coffman Announces Staff Changes

(LONE TREE, CO) —Rep. Mike Coffman (R-Aurora) announced today that Communications Director, Nathaniel Sillin, is departing his office for a position with Congresswoman-elect Nan Hayworth (NY-19). Following his departure Sillin will be replaced by Colorado native, Joe Megyesy, who will be based in Coffman's Lone Tree office.

"Nat has been an indispensible part of my leadership team. His acumen, tireless work ethic, and enduring professionalism have been vital to our work on behalf of Sixth District residents during my first term," said Coffman. "Nat is highly respected by his colleagues and the press corps. I am grateful for his service and wish him the best in his new endeavor."

Colorado native and veteran communicator Joe Megyesy will replace Sillin beginning January 3rd, 2011. Megyesy is a former communications director in the Colorado State Senate and currently serves as a communications consultant for Capitol Solutions, Inc. in Denver.

"I am excited to announce Joe Megyesy will be joining my staff as communications director. Joe is a seasoned communications professional with a strong track record of work on behalf of Coloradans. His experience and deep commitment to our community will be a great asset to the people of the Sixth District."
