

"Representative Coffman will review any and all gun safety related legislation that comes before the House of Representatives. Representative Coffman strongly believes we must first determine which of the actions recommended by the President are in fact appropriate for the federal government to take and which are better decided by state lawmakers. The second question that must be asked of any proposal is would it interfere with law abiding citizens Second Amendment rights."- Dustin Zvonek, District Director/Communications Director

Published January 16, 2013

□