

(WASHINGTON, D.C.) – U.S. Rep. Mike Coffman (R-Colorado) today released the following statement on the signing of the so-called stimulus package by President Barack Obama.

"Now that the stimulus bill has passed, my hope is that the President will now focus on inspiring confidence in the economy instead of the fear he promoted in order to get it passed."