

Coffman Honors Nation's Veterans, Reflects on Service

(Lone Tree, CO) - Rep. Mike Coffman (R-Aurora) issued the following statement after speaking at Fort Logan National Cemetery in Denver as part of an annual Veterans Day ceremony:

“Americans owe an immeasurable debt of gratitude to the men and women who have served, and are serving, our nation in the Armed Forces. We must also be cognizant of and thankful for the sacrifices families and loved ones of those serving make each and every day. Without their service and dedication to country first, America would not be the beacon of hope it is to people around the world.”

“As a Marine and Veteran, I know firsthand the sacrifices and hardships our servicemembers endure to protect America's freedom. While today is a special tribute and reminder, it is our duty to hold on to the feelings Veterans Day invokes. Each and every day we should consider how much we as a nation owe our men and women in uniform who have answered the call to duty and continually put themselves in harm's way to defend our liberty.”
