

Coffman Statement on Historic Election of Scott Brown, Rejection of Democrats' Government Takeover of Health Care

(WASHINGTON, D.C.) – Rep. Mike Coffman (R-CO) issued the following statement on Massachusetts voters' referendum on the Democrats' government takeover of health care in the historic election of Republican Scott Brown in one of the most liberal states in the nation:

“This race is more than just a referendum on a government controlled health care system. It represents a rejection of the entire first year agenda of the Obama Administration.”
