

Coffman Statement on Passage of the House Republican Budget

(WASHINGTON) – U.S. Rep. Mike Coffman (R-Aurora) issued the following statement today after voting in favor of “The Path to Prosperity: Restoring America’s Promise” budget for Fiscal Year 2012:

"The budget that I voted for today is historic in that this is the first time that Congress has been honest with the American people about the dangers facing our country from our unsustainable levels of debt," Coffman said.

The House of Representatives passed the budget measure proposed by U.S. Rep. Paul Ryan (R-WI) on a vote of 235-193.
