

WASHINGTON, D.C. – U.S. Rep. Mike Coffman, R-Aurora, issued the following statement today in response to the U.S. Supreme Court's ruling on the Affordable Care Act:

“I’m deeply disappointed that the individual mandate was re-branded as a tax and allowed to stand. I still believe that we need to repeal the Affordable Care Act and start over with a bipartisan patient-centered health care reform that doesn’t increase our debt or cripple our economy.”
